

Are you a singer, dancer or performer? Do you love sharing your knowledge and skills?

StarJam is looking for passionate people to tutor young people with disabilities in a variety of performing arts workshops.

StarJam is a not-for-profit organisation offering performance opportunities to young people with disabilities. StarJam kids gain confidence, empowerment, new friends, new hope and new purpose. StarJam also runs a performance unit available for events. Visit www.starjam.org to see StarJam in action.

We are on the hunt for compassionate, energetic people to register their interest in being a StarJam tutor.

We currently have the following contract positions available for regular weekly workshops held in the evenings (6:30pm – 8:00pm) during the school terms:
